REVIEWS

«It's about evil. Which is so commonplace. It's a terrifying movie. Because it's not made up. Brilliant acting. Violent scripts. Outstanding camera. Sound. Everything is here. And the most horrifying thing is that the next episode is probably happening behind the wall, right next door. Or even closer. And it'll happen tonight. To you. Dark area.

See ya around.»

GrermanSadulaev, writer

«I've watched «Dark area». It's very good and truthfully done. You may criticize it, you may discuss it, you may dislike it, you may be flippant about it, you may laugh about it into your fist, you may praise it because it has a lot to be praised for. And it's great when there is.»

Yuriy Klavdiev, playwright

«There is darkness in every one of us. Everybody had a moment in their lives when they wanted to commit something dark. Everybody wanted to kill, to destroy, tear out a liver, eat it up laughing into the victim's face. Dark area is a great means of getting rid of the darkness in your soul without actually killing anyone. A great outlet for anger.»

Dmitry Grunjushkin, scriptwriter

«The idea and the format are so marvelous that i don't even want to bore you discussing the details. It's my only wish that the project went on keeping the same degree.»

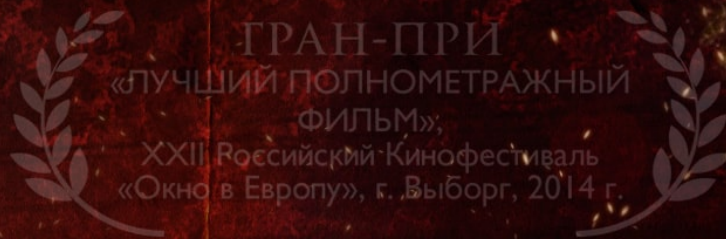

Rustem Samigullin, film critic

«Dark area» — winner of the 7-th International Internet Short Film Festival /New York/
